Eyvind Hugo Wichmann. May 30, 1928 - February 16, 2019. Three quantum textbooks should be on the shelf of every student and professor: Feynman Caltech lectures (volume three), French and Taylor's MIT course (1978) and Wichmann's Berkeley-course (volume four, 1971). A fair guess is that nearly everyone has the first-mentioned and the remaining two volumes are less often-studied (I hope I am wrong).
